

DATING BILL OF RIGHTS

- * I have the right to refuse a date without feeling guilty.
- * I have the right to ask for a date without being crushed if the answer is no.
- * I have the right to choose to go to parties alone without feeling that I've got to pair up with someone.
- * I have the right to do almost anything as long as it does not hurt someone else.
- * I give myself the right not to act "macho". I give myself the right not to act seductively.
- * If I want physical closeness, I have the right to ask.
- * If I do not want physical closeness, I have the right to say no.
- * I have the right to start a relationship slowly, to say, "I want to know you better before I become involved."
- * I have the right to be my own self without changing to suit others.
- * I have the right to change a relationship, to say, "We used to be close and I want something else now."
- * I have the right to be told a relationship is changing and not to blame myself, or change myself to keep it going.
- * I have the right to an equal relationship with the opposite sex.
- * I have the right not to dominate or be dominated.
- * I have the right to be quiet or spirited without being misunderstood.
- * I have the right to act one way with one person and a different way with someone else.
- * I have the right to change my goals whenever I want to.
